Ricoh Office Solutions Bridge Technology Gaps, Connect Campuses

Places of higher education face unique challenges when implementing technology for faculty, administrative staff, and students. The selected solutions must balance the need for the latest technologies to attract students against cost to ensure enrollment remains affordable.

Issues are further complicated by the diverse nature of the population and computer types in use – UNIX/Linux-based systems running the school's mainframe applications, Windows-based desktop PCs are used by administrative personnel and faculty, not to mention the thousands of student laptops running various versions of Macintosh and Windows operating systems and printer drivers – and they all expect equal, reliable access to network printers for the production of their course syllabuses, exams, handouts, reports, copies of professor notes, classroom presentations and more. Larger schools with multiple campuses and a more mobile student body require consistent performance and operability to minimize user learning curves and support issues. Ricoh understands these issues and has infused its product line with the reliability, affordability, and versatility colleges and universities need to provide productive printing solutions across the entire campus.

Every Ricoh solution includes a One Year Warranty, a U.S.-based Help Desk with 24x7 toll-free service and support, plus a national network of Ricoh-trained sales and technical personnel to ensure your faculty and student body are focused on expanding their minds, not maintaining printers. Maximize your technology budget with these inherent advantages of Ricoh solutions:

- Low total cost of ownership with aggressive hardware pricing and low cost-per-page factors make full-color and monochrome printing affordable for classroom handouts and student reports.
- Support for all popular operating systems including the latest versions of Windows, Macintosh, Novell and Linux allows all campus users to access quality printing regardless of computer hardware type.
- Support for 802.11b and Bluetooth Wireless connectivity permits students to move between classrooms, buildings, and campuses and print directly from their laptop without hardwired connections or downloading data to a thumb drive first.
- PictBridge™ direct digital camera connectivity on many devices makes it easy for students and faculty to incorporate images from research, student activities, and laboratory experiments into learning.
- Advanced finishing options available for several devices supports hole punching and saddle-stitch stapling for the production of financial reports, exam booklets, newsletters, study grant proposals, and classroom handouts.
- Several modes of user authentication, and data protection ensure only authorized personnel have access to confidential information such as student applications, grades, scholarship data, and other forms that may be stored on printer hard disk drives.
