

ACCESSIBLE CUSTOMER SERVICE

At Tech Data, we are committed to doing things the right way – and that includes providing excellent customer to everyone, including people with disabilities.

To learn more about our commitment to accessible customer service:

- Ask any of our Human Resource Representatives;
- Visit our accessibility webpage at www.techdata.ca (Human Resource Section); or
- Request a copy of any of our Accessible Customer Service documents (i.e. training policy; training records; notification of temporary disruption process; feedback process; policies, practices and procedures for providing our goods / services to people with disabilities, including those relating to assistive devices, communication, service animals and support persons).

To help us improve accessible customer service, we appreciate your feedback. Speak to any of our Human Resource representatives or visit our accessibility webpage at www.techdata.ca (Human Resource Section) for details of our feedback process.
